

QUALITY POLICY

ConcealFab is committed to meeting or exceeding customer expectations by developing and delivering innovative concealment and RF optimization solutions that help our customers obtain difficult site approvals and improve wireless network performance.

We will aggressively pursue opportunities for quality improvement to ensure that customers recognize our products and the work performed in our facility as the best in our industry.

Management will maintain and continually improve a quality management system that provides for quality assurance and demonstrates conformance to customer requirements and applicable industry standards.